5. Chairmans Report

The Village Clean-up Day on Saturday 18th April was well attended and lots of people came out to help including new parishioners. The Parish Council would like to thank everyone who did attend and help restore the village. Much of the wet weather we have had during winter had certainly had an effect of signposts etc., but they have now been cleaned. Fortunately, we had lovely weather for the clean-up.

I received an email from the Common committee that they had found deep holes dug out on the moor. They have now been filled in, and I have emailed to thank them.

6. Clerks Report

BT update £47.87

The lifebuoy has now been installed on it's stand on Cleverdon Close
